The order dated 16-9-2005 is as follows:

“Pursuant to the order dated 22nd July, 2005, the case has been sent today as an unlisted case before this court.

Pursuant to the order dated 16-9-2005, the case was listed before the Court on 11-11-2005 with the Office Report dated 11-11-2005 to the effect that the learned counsel for the petitioner had not taken steps till date.

On 11-11-2005, Shri D.S.P. Singh, learned counsel for the petitioner had sent illness slip.

In the circumstances, the case was directed to be listed peremptorily on 29-11-2005, i.e. today. The order dated 11-11-2005 is as follows:

“Pursuant to the order dated 16-9-2005, the case is listed today.

On 16-9-2005, the case was adjourned on the prayer made by Shri D.S.P. Singh, learned counsel for the petitioner so as to enable him to obtain instructions from the petitioner, as mentioned in the order dated 22-7-2005. Office is directed to submit Report as why the said direction given in the said order dated 16-9-2005 has not been complied with.

Shri D.S.P. Singh, learned counsel for the petitioner has sent illness slip today.

Pursuant to the order dated 11-11-2005, the case is listed today, i.e., on 29-11-2005 with the office report dated 29-11-2005 to the effect that the learned counsel for the petitioner has not taken steps till date.

Today, the case has been taken up in the revised list. Learned counsel for the petitioner are not present.

From the above narration of facts, it is evident that despite repeated adjournments, steps have not been taken so far on behalf of the petitioner for issuance of notice to the respondents and for publication of notice of the Election Petition in the newspaper, as per the directions given in the order dated 6-8-2004.

As noted above, even though the case has been taken up in the revised list today, learned counsel for the petitioner are not present.

In the circumstances, the Court has no option but to dismiss the Election Petition for want of prosecution.

The Election Petition is accordingly dismissed for want of prosecution.
